

Writing Guidelines

Something To Chew On publishes personal stories by writers who want to share how God has or is working in their lives. Our mission to connect, encourage and grow women in their faith through personal stories.

We are looking for writers who write from their hearts and share relatable, God-focused stories. We welcome submissions by all writers although we cannot guarantee publication. We ask that you consider the following when you submit:

1. Submissions should not exceed 1500 words.
2. Share a personal and authentic story.
3. Emphasis should be on God.
4. Please include one scripture.
5. Writing should be positive and encouraging.
6. At this time, we are not able to offer payment for submissions.
7. Please submit a 4-5 sentence bio, a photo of yourself and a link to your website with submission.
8. Blogs that use foul language will not be accepted.
9. Please check for grammar and punctuation.
10. Please do not use more than one hashtag in your writing.
11. Your submission must be original although you can use something that's been published to your personal site.
